

HOW TO PURCHASE THE MMM OUTBREAK EDITION DISCOUNTED LICENSES

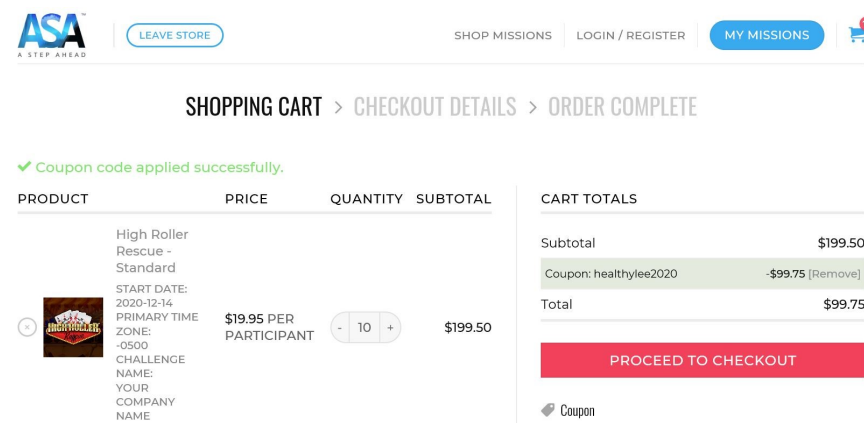

Start at the HealthyLee.com website select, MMM, then “Register Now” and when you get into the Outbreak website select one of the six week challenges and click “Start Mission”. High Roller is popular!

Select “Standard” for activity prescription and enter your start date as December 14th.

Click continue and enter your challenge name including MMM in the title so we can have some friendly competition throughout the community. Then enter your company name, coupon code HEALTHYLEE2020 and then check out!

Next, you will receive an email with your special code to send out to participants. You may send the invitation to team captains first to set up teams and they in turn will send the invite and code to their teammates. Team members may download the app and get started. See next page for app step by step instructions.
